Our plans for getting back together safely

Once again, this latest Lockdown has seriously affected how we deliver Scouting to our young people.

We have again had to put our face to face meetings on hold and will be offering Zoom sessions for all age groups. Details will be circulated each week via email and FaceBook.

As was made clear in Parliament this week, we don't know when the Lockdown will end or what restrictions will remain in place after that date and so do not know when we will be able to resume our meetings. This will depend on decisions to be taken at national level. We will let you know what we are able to offer as soon as we know ourselves. We are also aware that some young people are now old enough to move up to the next section. The section leaders will be in touch with you shortly to discuss the moving on process for your child.

We have seen at first hand how much the Cubs have enjoyed meeting together even though "social distancing" has meant we have had to change the way we work quite significantly. We very much look forward to coming up with something similar for the Scouts and the Beavers as soon as we can.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any comments or questions.

In the meantime, do look after yourselves and your family members.

Kind Regards,

Paul D. Trott
